

Fool

Ekali

I pretend that I'm not afraid
Always acting like I don't take notice on your moves
Is that obvious to you
Isn't it strange how it shifts and shapes
I look at odds in a different way when I'm close to you
Is that obvious I do

Close, when you come closer
I'm losing my defense
Suddenly it's hard to be just friends

So could you take it slowly
Just a little bit of you can throw me
Off over the edge, I look below me
Falling like a fool, ooh
Unfold me
No one's coming close to how you know me
I'm over the edge, I look below me
Falling like a fool, ooh

(Please, kiss me)
(Falling like a fool for you)

If it's a faith, how can you be sure
That we go back to how it was before
And I'm scared of the change
I could be losing you this way

Close, when you come closer
I'm losing my defense
Suddenly it's hard to be just friends

So could you take it slowly
Just a little bit of you can throw me
Off over the edge, I look below me
Falling like a fool, ooh
Unfold me
No one's coming close to how you know me
I'm over the edge, I look below me
Falling like a fool, ooh

(Falling like a fool for you)
(Please, kiss me)
(Falling like a fool for you)

I don't know why I'm playing pretend
When you're the only one who knows me inside
And now I don't know how to be when you're around
I play the fool for you

So could you take it slowly
Just a little bit of you can throw me
Off over the edge, I look below me
Falling like a fool, ooh
