

i gave you everything

EKKSTACY

Sitting on Mulholland Drive
Waiting for my tears to dry
I don't think that they ever will
I need to get out of here
I could go anywhere
You're in the back of my mind still

I don't know
I swear I try and try and try, I can't let go
I'd give you everything that I own
I don't mean anything, though

More days go by
I'm still lost
Most of the time
And I can't seem
I can't seem to get out of this
It's constant

I don't know
I swear I try and try and try, I can't let go
I'd give you everything that I own
I don't mean anything, though
I don't mean anything, though
I don't mean anything, though
