

Ebullition

Ektomorf

So many years and it will never change
Again I walk this road alone
Skulls and bones, rage and hate
Back to the darkness to find the light again
This is my world where I belong
This life is war and I'm hell

I kill
All of them
Me alone
The fire within
Ebullition

No matter what I always end up here
Wasting my time on lies and rats
This is the end just set me free
My weakness died with the love was never real
Aggression pounding in my heart
I see in their eyes, the tears of fear

I kill
All of them
Me alone
The fire within
Ebullition

And time will tell the truth
They will spit out their lies
Every word will be painful
Their end, is my despise
Forgotten, left behind
Alone in their demise
In my fire they will burn
I see their ashes in the sky

I remember all the pain and fear
I can hear they're laughing at my tears
I can see their faces when I close my eyes
And I'm still bleeding from their knifes

From that grave they buried me I'm free
I'm the thing they fear, that should not be
I set my fire on and let it burn
This is their one way trip there is no return

I walk this road I walk it all alone
I never needed any one
With the blackness in my heart

I kill
All of them
Me alone
The fire within
Ebullition
