

If You're Willing to Die

Ektomorf

You
You are always crying
Complaining that you hate your life
You're jealous and you hate my life

You
You want everything
You're just too dumb to realize
That you have to sacrifice

Move and do something
Do it for your life
You will get everything
If you are willing to die

You
You are so hopeless
Can't you face the pain
Are you so afraid

You
Are you a loser
They just want to see you fail
Fight before it's too late

Move and do something
Do it for your life
You will get everything
If you are willing to die
