For all those who goes through the pain
The pain makes you a hopeless slave
Those who get close to lost every day
In their heart, nothing else
Only hate

Stuck in the swamp, addiction and fear
Suffocate from all to hear and see
It drags you down; it makes you numb
Takes you to the edge
Makes you fuck up

It's time for change
It's time for life
Leave all the self-destructive shit behind
Take the chance; don't let it fade
Take your chance before it's too late
