

Clean Your Window

El Perro del Mar

Clean your window
Clean it off, clean it all
Leave your mirror
Look out there and don't be scared

I know you, you wanna follow where everybody goes
And be told what to think and what not
It matters but you don't know
It matters more than you know
If you shed some light
Because ignorance grows
In the dark
Can you go

Clean your window
Your views are old
They gotta go

Clean your window
They gotta go, you'll never know

Clean this window
Your news are old
They gotta go

Clean your window
You'll never grow if they don't go
No

Bliss is not you know
To be small to the soul
Be a window
To what's there
Free your head

I know you, you wanna go
Go where everybody goes
And be told what to say and what not
It matters but you don't know
It matters more than you know
So just share some light
Because ignorance grows in the dark

Clean your window
Your views are old
They gotta go

Clean your window
They gotta go or you'll never know

Clean this window
Your news are old
They gotta go

Clean your window
You'll never grow if they don't go
Clean your window

Your views are old
They gotta go

Clean your window
They gotta go, you'll never know

Clean this window
Your news are old

Clean your window
You'll never grow if they don't go
