

Changes

Elaine

I cannot change you
You cannot change me
I may try for a few days
But after a while I go back to my old ways
But, baby, give me time
I'm learning to be more patient
I'm learning to trust you more

So I'm gonna change for you
I'll do better for you
I know I said this before
Know we've been here before
But I mean it
Oh, I mean it

So I'm gonna change for you
I'll do better for you
I know I said this before
Know we've been here before
But I mean it
Oh, I mean it

'Cause I
I owe you so much more than my pain
I owe you so much more than my past
You deserve it all
You deserve it all
You deserve it all

I owe you so much more than my pain
I owe you so much more than my past
You deserve it all
You deserve it all
You deserve it all (All)

Fresh out the shower
I just slipped on that dress
You said you really liked
Like last time was a mess
Even though you let me down, I still think you're the best

And I'm I'm on my way to you
Told my Uber to make it quick
'Cause we got a lotta shit that we should handle
And don't forget to light the candles

So I'm gonna change for you
I'll do better for you
I know I said this before
Know we've been here before
But I mean it
Oh, I mean it

So I'm gonna change for you
I'll do better for you
I know I said this before
I know we've been here before

But I mean it

'Cause I
I owe you so much more than my pain
I owe you so much more than my past
You deserve it all
You deserve it all
You deserve it all

I owe you so much more than my pain
I owe you so much more than my past
You deserve it all
You deserve it all

I don't know if this is right, uh
But it feels right, uh
I don't know if this is right, mhm
Tell me we're alright, uh
(For I mean it)
This is right, uh

I owe you so much more than my pain
You deserve it all
You deserve it all
You deserve it all
I owe you so much more than my pain
I owe you so much more than my past
You deserve it all
You deserve it all
You deserve it all
