

Fading Away

Elaine

You look away but I can always see right through your lies
Might've fooled me once but now I know the truth behind those eyes
Said I'm broken still you choose to follow through with all my cries
In hindsight I should've taken my own advice

The more I try to hide, more pain I feel inside
Excuses, you still always find a way to let it slide
Don't you know this can't survive?
You need to pick a side
Got a feeling I've already made up my mind, I'm

Fadin' away
Fadin' away
I'm fadin' away
Ain't nothin' left to save

All the times you did me wrong but I still stuck around
All the things I did for you, oh, baby, why'd you let me down?
Put all my faith in us, why'd you have to leave me underground?
So many things to say but nevermind, I'll be okay
I'll find my way, yeah

The more I try to hide, more pain I feel inside
Excuses, you still always find a way to let it slide
Don't you know this can't survive?
You need to pick a side
Got a feeling I've already made up my mind, I'm

Fadin' away
Fadin' away
I'm fadin' away
I'm fadin' away
I'm fadin' away
I'm fadin' away

And in the meantime
I'm not gonna fight on the frontlines
Swimmin' in my mind
I know these loose ties, can't be fixed overnight
Though I'm torn up inside, best believe, I'm

Fadin' away
Fadin' away, yeah, yeah
I'm fadin' away, away, away

Fadin' away (Fadin', fadin', fadin' far away)
Fadin' away (Fadin', fadin', fadin' far away)
I'm fadin' away (I said, fadin', fadin', fadin' far away)
Fadin' away, away, away (Fadin', fadin', fadin' far away)
I'm fadin' away, yeah (Fadin', fadin', fadin' far away)
I'm fadin' away (Fadin', fadin', fadin' far away)
There's nothin' left to save
