

Rumours

All the rumours are true
I really do got feelings for you
All the things you do
I've been running but I'm coming back to you

All the things you do
There's no letting go
I'm sticking right by you

All the rumours are true
I've been dreaming of Me and you all night
Could you love me right

Oh
They been asking questions
Yes it's you babe
I choose you babe
Because you keep me cool
Stuck in my mind but I like you there babe
Oh yes it's you babe

Said the rumours are true
Yeah the rumours are true
Said the rumours
The rumours

I don't wanna go too far but come take me away babe
Don't worry bout the place it's right where we belong yeah
But just so you know
You should keep me close
I don't wanna lie I am so into you
Can't stop thinking bout the simple things you do that really make me lose control
I'm talking bout the only thing that I just can't seem to resist baby

I choose you babe
Because you keep me cool
Stuck in my mind but I like you there babe
