

Lurlinnight

Elane

Midnights wind whispers to me
The saga of myself
I fall asleep
A foggy dream
The Ravens fly ahead
Fly to nowhere
Fly to nowhere

A gleeman came to give me wings
that waft me to the void
I fall asleep
A foggy dream
The Ravens fly ahead
Fly to nowhere
Fly to nowhere

And will the moon always be moving
When only the trees will remind us
And will the water's still be flowing
Will the stars fall down when I lose you
When I lose you
When I lose you

So alone
I remain here
and fortunes songs begins
Will we meet once again
At the meadows brook
And fly to nowhere
Fly to nowhere
