

Ribcage

Elbow

We blew the doors, didn't we?
Pissed in their champagne
And did a real thing, didn't we?
Gave ourselves a name
And peeled away the shame

I wanted to explode
To pull my ribs apart
And let the sun inside
To pull my ribs apart
And let the sun inside

Red stain blossoms
And all you have is kisses
All you have is kisses
Red stain blossoms
And all you have is kisses
All you have is kisses

And when the sunshine
Throwin' me a lifeline
Finds it's way into my room
All I need is you

We blew the doors, didn't we?
Pissed in their champagne
And did a real thing, didn't we?

To pull my ribs apart
And let the sun inside
To pull my ribs apart
And let the sun inside

Red stain blossoms
And all you have is kisses
All you have is kisses
Red stain blossoms
And all you have is kisses
All you have is kisses

We called that love
And we called that love
And we called that love
We called that love
And we called that love
And we called that love

And when the sunshine
Throwin' me a lifeline
Finds it's way into my room
All I need is you
And when the sunshine
Throwin' me a lifeline
All I need is you
And when the sunshine
Throwin' me a lifeline

Finds it's way into my room
All I need is you
And when the sunshine
Throwin' me a lifeline
All I need is you
And when the sunshine
Throwin' me a lifeline
All I need is you
And when the sunshine
Throwin' me a lifeline
All I need is you
All I need is you
All you have is kisses
And all I need is you
