Elder Island

Here's a fantasy in poor taste
Wanna be the queen on your plate
Will you take a seat at the table where I'm made
Need to change some things on the way
Baby leave the jeep at the gate
Have you ever considered a change of face

There's a two for one at this place
Anything you lack they'll create
If your first snap isn't right they'll retake
You can fill the cracks they've got paste
You can flip the fat and eat cake
There's a hidden fee but you wont feel it when it's replaced

There just things
That you don't own
Things like limbs
That you can show

There just things in the end
Just another appendage
You want it, you got it
Always the face of cutting edge

Is it just something out of reach
Or just another appendage
Having some assets amended
Buying a spectrum of changes
