

Quiet when she goes
I'm tired by the void
So I fill the space
With my lungs
Echos where it goes
So I chase its tail
From room to room
Quiet when she goes

In no hurry to find
Some other company
Once you're on my mind

Roll over in the night
I run by your side, I run by your side
Through lands blanketed in blue light
Roll it over

Inspired by waking
When the world is in waiting
When the light has only one eye open
Peeks the horizon
So I sit in reverie a while

In no hurry to find
Some other company
Once you're on my mind

Roll over in the night
I run by your side, I run by your side
Through lands blanketed in blue light
Rolling it over
Over and over
Over and over
