

All things told and all things recounted
Ask for gold, you searched and you found it
Touch his coat now, that's what you wished for Heaven knows how much you regret our

Golden twister, fool, fool
I'm the one that missed it fool fool
Forget all the things that you once knew
Forget all the feelings touch gave you

Found and missing who who
Who's the one you're kissing who who
Who told you the stories that you bought
But he's gone now you're here no more

Golden twister, fool, fool
I'm the one that missed it fool fool
Forget all the things that you once knew
Forget all the feelings touch gave you

Found and missing who who
Who's the one you're kissing who who
Who told you the stories that you bought
But he's gone now you're here no more

Golden twister, fool, fool
I'm the one that missed it fool fool
Forget all the things that you once knew
Forget all the feelings touch gave you
