

Rewinding

Elderbrook

You looked before you put it on
You left it playing, as the radio is dead wrong
No luck for Lucien, the jazz we got will slowly fade
And I can't hold everything around me
Dollar bills still remain

That's why we just kept rewinding
That's why we just kept re-

Premiere of an area in time
When mortal thoughts entice the mind
And you said, you said the waves of sound are blinding
So the music that we played
We just kept rewinding

No, we just kept rewinding
That's why we just kept rewinding
