

Zero

Electric Guest

Ruin it all the way I couldn't see
And no one is a customer until they pay a fee
All of the fallen mind I couldn't feel
But I know if I step away you'll be the one to squeal

Zero is the number that you get from me
Take all the year, whenever I'm falling down again

Five and a half is all, nothing to see
But it's me, a collectible I never claim to be
Every piece of me is not as I say
But so long as I never know I'll never go away

Zero that's the number that you get from me
Take all the years, whenever I'm falling down again
Zero (oh, Zero) that's the number that you get from me
Take all the years, whenever I'm falling down again

That's the number that you get from me
Take all the years, whenever I'm falling down again
Zero (oh, Zero) that's the number that you get from me
Take all the years, whenever I'm falling down the Earth again

Zero, Zero

(Yes... there was sometime to go)

It's always the narrow ones who say that somethings off
They overlook you or refuse
But the undertow is only lost time to rise above the low
