

Daddy's Boy

Electric Six

Combing out the tangles in your dewy hair
Stomping on a curse like you just don't care
Golden triangle, silver square
Blood red pentacle in your stare

To all my people who have been fucked over
Find some property to destroy
For all the players who have been passed over
It's all because of Daddy's Boy
The whole entire world is a toy
In the mind of Daddy's Boy
It merely takes a pen to destroy
And authorize the signature of Daddy's Boy

Soon all will be revealed
But wait now look behind ya
There's a man behind the curtain
And the curtain was made in China
And the bright bright neon lights are only there to blind ya

Disregard the human element Jack
Take another puff from the corporate smoke stack
Round pegs, square holes
Pulling out the limbs of the government moles

To all my people who have been fucked over
Find some property to destroy
For all the players who have been passed over
It's all because of Daddy's Boy
The whole entire world is a toy
In the mind of Daddy's Boy
It merely takes a pen to destroy
And authorize the signature of Daddy's Boy

Daddy's Boy, daddy's Boy
Daddy's Boy, daddy's Boy
Daddy's Boy, daddy's Boy
Daddy's Boy, daddy's Boy
