

How Dare You

Electric Six

When the molls and the poles and the mafia
Decide they got something to say
Money gets printed, glasses get tinted
Everybody looks the other way
Who am I to take human lives
That [?] my name or my game
Twenty seven hours of negotiations
And twenty four more on their plate
Yeah!

How dare you! (How dare you!)
How dare you! (How dare you!)
How dare you! (How dare you!)
How dare you! (How dare you!)

Boning up on the talking points
And maybe we can seal some deals
Let yourself get used for a while
And baby then you'll see how it feels
It was a day for the ages
In lifes little stages
I kept it all in my coat
And I don't care if you do or you don't baby
Either you will or you won't
Yeah!

How dare you! (How dare you!)
How dare you! (How dare you!)
How dare you! (How dare you!)
How dare you! (How dare you!)

How dare you! (How dare you!)
How dare you! (How dare you!)
How dare you! (How dare you!)
How dare you!
How could you let it go this far?

I don't pay for nothing 'cause it's the land of the free
I got this line of credit and it's only for me
I got this finger put in your mouth or just hole
I got this golden ticket made of fool's gold
Hey!

Open the door baby, open wide
I got complicated friends on the inside
Here's the crash landing and inflatable slide
As you take the first step towards career suicide
And it's good, I know that it's good
Do what you were born to do
Do it, but how dare you?

How dare you!
