

Nightwaves

Electric Six

Pleasure slaves and good time guys
Hedonists constantly pray for it
Ride the nightwaves it will open your eyes
But somebody has to pay for it

Who needs foes with friends like mine
You would pay for shit this whole time
When it snows, man, you all go blind
You ain't pay for shit this whole time

It's only a coincidence
It's only a coincidence
It's only a coincidence
It's only a coincidence

When you run with a bloody entourage
And you're knee deep in the capital lies
Guns and knives and double focus
Too many good times, the screams awoke us
Waiting for the lady in the gates
Sometimes the pagan makes mistakes
Take you to the park in the human side
Hope you don't find they've closed the rides

Who do you suppose with friends like mine
You would pay for shit this whole time
When it snows, man, you all go blind
You ain't pay for shit this whole time
Ride the nightwaves, it will open your eyes
Ride the nightwaves, they close the rides
Ride the nightwaves, it will open your eyes
Ride the nightwaves, they close the rides

It's only a coincidence
It's only a coincidence
It's only a coincidence
It's only a coincidence
