

Wizard in Black

Electric Wizard

A tower stands on the edge of time
Upon it stands the astral mind
The burning chaosphere seethes behind
Ours to see yet we are blind

The eyes of God look upon what he's done
And the eyes of Man look on and beyond
I am a god, I am the one
Into the chaos see my time has begun

The wizard in black reveals the sign
The chosen are ready, destiny realigns
Eye of ultra soul, together we join
Alone again, once again, into the void

The eyes of God look upon what he's done
And the eyes of Man look on and beyond
I am a god, I am the one
Into the chaos see my time has begun

Cosmic eye in the heart of the sun
Freedom rays awaken the chosen ones

The eyes of God look upon what he's done
And the eyes of Man look on and beyond
I am a god, I am the one
Into the chaos see my time has begun
