

The Blazing Tempest

Elegeion

My life was spawned from
Madman's desire
Dead fuel and dry woods
Mass funeral pyre

Hot winds and heatwaves
Fan wicked flames
Riding the north wind
Death smoulders in my wake

Fierce and destructive
Wild and untamed
Hollowed and burnt out,
Charred lives I claim

Out in the darkness
Inferno glows
The blazing tempest
Watch my raging hellfire grow

Skies are grey
Through the haze
I can't see
What stood there once before

Ash and dust
Now I must Recognize
What was now is no more
The forest bows down
And accepts her blackened fate

She knows its time now
For her kin to regenerate

Propagate
Germinate
Perpetuate

Begone clouds above me
Keep in your rain
No fatal downpours
And I'll multiply my claim

The skies betray me
And douse my flames
Snuff out my anger
Though embers still remain

Fierce and destructive
Wild and untamed
Hollowed and burnt out,
Charred lives I claim

Out in the darkness
Inferno glows
The blazing tempest

Watch my raging hellfire grow
