Spirits

In your mind I am free, I AM Using you to tell, I CAN When you touch yourself

From the spot where new life gets born Right down to the places you don't want to show Try and find me baby, I'm all over you

In a way I am just your darkest fantasy I call tell exactly what you want and need I can't keep your soul from falling You can't keep your motor running But release is on it's way...

Spirits watching every motion, day by day What will be your faith?

Spirits, born to our devotion On our way To what will be our faith

I'm the stain on your wall. I AM Watching you when you craw. I CAN Won't you touch yourself?

I'm in your bed when you're not alone
Watch you make the faces when he makes you come
I can tell you baby, who you're thinking of
