

Never Forget

Eleine

Fading
Within my own eyes
When lost in darkness
We question our mind
Seeing myself
Wither within
Stretched out so thin

In my own darkness
I question my own eyes

Watch as I rise
Reclaim my life
Under the darkest of skies
Scars will remain
Signed by your name
Never forget we're the same

Torture
Lies deep in your eyes
An empty darkness
Embrace you with size
Can you see at all
Beyond the fall
Reclaim it all

In total darkness
We question our own eyes

Watch as I rise
Reclaim my life
Under the darkest of skies
Scars will remain
Signed by your name
Never forget we're the same

Watch as I rise
Reclaim my life
Under the darkest of skies
Scars will remain
Signed by your name
Never forget we're the same
