

Stand By The Flame

Eleine

Warmth spreads from flames across my face
Whispering rumbles call my name
I feel a burning rage inside from their lies
Justice will rain from the skies tonight

Stand by the flame
They have ignited us
Wearing our pain
We'll stand victorious

I spit blood and speak my fears
I sense your crumbling pride inside
This fight ends tonight

Stand by the flame
They have ignited us
Wearing our pain
We'll stand victorious

Stand by the flame
They have ignited us
Wearing our pain
Stand by the flame
They have ignited us
Wearing our pain
We'll stand victorious
