

Sister

Elemento P

Took down your photos off the wall
No longer waiting for your call
Please tell your sister that I had to go away
Today I no longer feel the same
I left her crying in the hall
Except myself before a floor
I should have kissed her but I let her go astray
Today my cell phone number has changed

I took down your photos off the wall
The memories of you they had to fall
I know I'll miss her, but I had to go away
Today I no longer feel the same
Today my cell phone number has changed
Today I no longer feel the same
