

I kind of always knew things were gonna be like this
But I've been trying to change my mind
I wish I could understand, but I don't seem to comprehend
Anything that's being said

Why do I just run away?
Why don't I just start today?
When will this ever end?
'Cause I want to live again

I guess that I should take the time but all I do is walk the line
That has been drawn inside my mind
I wish I could understand, but I don't seem to comprehend
Anything that's being said

Why do I just run away?
Why don't I just start today?
When will this ever end?
'Cause I want to live again
