

Somebody Else

Eleni Mandell

Somebody else is calling for you
Over the earth and under the moon
I am calling for somebody too

God, I can't stand the pain
Take out my heart, the blood in my veins
You can't stand it, I know, I know

Somebody else is crying for you
Out of their grasp to feel someone new
You are crying for somebody too

God, I can't stand the pain
Take out my heart, the blood in my veins
You can't stand it, I know, I know, I know

Somebody else is calling for you
Out on the town and into your room
I am calling for somebody too
