

Beat The Ordinary

Elephant Kind

A hundred thousand days
A hundred thousand dreamers say
I'm gonna leave the kitchen
I'll be on television
Everything's magical
And it's all possible you know
Some call it paper chasin'
Fame and money tracin'
I'll be on television
Be the one you'll always listen
Magical
And it's all possible you know

When your ambition
Gets you nowhere
When your ambition
Gives you hell

It's not necessary to beat the ordinary
Not necessary to beat the ordinary
It's not necessary to beat the ordinary
It's not necessary to beat the ordinary
Not necessary to beat the ordinary
It's not necessary to beat the ordinary
It's not necessary to beat the ordinary
Not necessary to beat the ordinary
It's not necessary to beat the ordinary

It's not necessary to beat the ordinary
It's not necessary to beat the ordinary
It's not necessary to beat the ordinary
It's not necessary to beat the ordinary
Not necessary to beat the ordinary
It's not necessary to beat the ordinary
