Elephant Kind

Can't keep my eyes at the unknown
We never meant to live alone
This isn't life that we have known
Getting accustomed to the phone
Recognitions grow
Heart shaped follow
Set a ratio
For people I don't know

Just tried a new app where they talk
Everyone has something to say
Remember when we used to stalk
Bragging about the getaway
All the noise but I'm still feeling empty inside
All I need is sleight of real human touch

There's nothing to it
I hope

Lately
I could use somebody
Away from reality
I've been dreaming on my own for way too long
Lately
You could use somebody
Away from reality
You've been dreaming on your own for way too long

I nearly lost my shit today
We never meant to live this way
Being on lockdown makes me wonder
If I never left Down Under
All the noise but I'm still feeling empty inside
All I need is sleight of real human touch

There's nothing to it
I hope

Lately
I could use somebody
Away from reality
I've been dreaming on my own for way too long
Lately
You could use somebody
Away from reality
You've been dreaming on your own for way too long

Lately
I could use somebody
Away from reality
I've been dreaming on my own for way too long
Lately
You could use somebody
Away from reality
