

Echo's Rose

Elephant Revival

The water tore lives, it tears, I can't be still (But soon I will)
The wind that cross me passes making ripples through (The windows)
Out on into the past from where Echo's Rose

Some light in here
Ooh, ooh, send some light in here
Light in here, ooh, ooh

Then might we see more clearly
How to ease our begging bodies
Remembering why we're breathing
Deep and then I'm through the ceiling

Some light in here, ooh
Send some light in here
We'll shine in here, ooh
Send some light in here

The day has come to pass, I can be quiet now
(Still wonder how)
Night can be so last when memory gives a bow
(To endless now)
Resolving to surrender when Echo's Rose

(Some light in here)
Send some light in here, send some light in here
Send some light in here
