

Catching On

Elephante

Can't get over what you said
I'm a prisoner in my own head
And I try to loosen up
But I'm a statue frozen to the touch

Oh, I have no idea what I'm doing here
Someone feed me a line
Lover's language flow in and out the soul
I've been wrong every time

I'm catching on to you
You steer me wrong
You do, you do
I'm catching on to you
You string me along
You do, don't you?
I'm catching on, I'm catching on

And I feel it every day
Given one hand while you take away
And I'm falling out of line, out of place
But how can I wait when it's always the next time?

Oh, I have no idea what I'm doing here
Someone feed me a line
Lover's language flow in and out the soul
I've been wrong every time

I'm catching on to you
You steer me wrong
You do, you do
I'm catching on to you
You string me along
You do, don't you?
I'm catching on to you
You steer me wrong
You do, you do
I'm catching on to you
You string me along
You do, don't you?
I'm catching on, I'm catching on

I'm catching on to you
You steer me wrong
You do, you do
I'm catching on to you
String me along, along, along

I'm catching on to you
You steer me wrong
You do, you do
I'm catching on to you
You string me along
(String me along, string me)
I'm catching on
I'm catching, I'm catching
I'm catching on

I'm catching, I'm catching
