Elephante

I wake up and I text you first
Overthinkin' every word
I won't tell you why you always on my mind
Telling you that your fit looks nice
Even when it's oversized
You don't need to try, I won't ever mind, I-

Paint my wardrobe in shades of you
And I think I see you in my attitude
The way you hold me sets the mood
No explanations

I'm holdin' my breath, counting to ten, yeah
Telling myself that isn't it, isn't it obvious, isn't it obvious?
That I'm falling in love little too fast, yeah
No need to ask isn't it, isn't it obvious?

Gitl you know you drive me crazy
Playing cool is so overrated
Won't you say it first? (Won't you say it first?)
I'm not good with words (I'm not good with words)

I paint my walls in shades of you
I think I see you in your attitude
The way you hold me sets the mood
