

EVERYTHING EVERYTHING

Elevation Worship

When the stress of the world
Is too much to take
There's a place I can run to
Every piece of my pride
Now I give away
You're the hope that I cling to

There's nothing like falling
Right into the arms of the father
Here in your presence
I'm caught in a love like no other

This feels like heaven
Nothing is missing
I know I will be safe here in your sight
Everything, everything's all right
My heart is open
There is no distance
I know fear has no place in your light
Everything, everything's alright

Won't let go this is love
That will never fade
You're the song that I'm singing
Holding on to the words
That I heard you say
You're the truth that I'm living

There's nothing like falling
Right into the arms of the father
Here in your presence
I'm caught in a love like no other

This feels like heaven
Nothing is missing
I know I will be safe here in your sight
Everything, everything's all right
My heart is open
There is no distance
I know fear has no place in your light
Everything, everything's alright

You're everything I've ever wanted
You're everything I've ever needed
I won't forget what you've promised
You're more than enough for me

You're everything I've ever wanted
You're everything I've ever needed
I won't forget what you've promised
You're more than enough for me

This feels like heaven
Nothing is missing
I know I will be safe here in your sight
Everything, everything's all right
My heart is open

There is no distance
I know fear has no place in your light
Everything, everything's alright
