

Runnin

Elevation Worship

I have tasted, I have seen
The realness of Your love for me
It's written on Your hands and feet
It's all the evidence I'll ever need

Your love is better than life
I can't even wrap my mind around it
One day here in Your house
Better than a thousand elsewhere
Your love keeps on running, running
Keeps on running after me, oh
Keeps on running, running
Keeps on running after me, yeah

And there's no one that can take Your place no
Yeah
There's nothing that can separate no
Oh how high, how wide, how deep Your love
The greatest love the world has ever seen
Oh Your love

Your love is better than life
I can't even wrap my mind around it
One day here in Your house
Better than a thousand elsewhere
Your love keeps on running, running
Keeps on running after me
Keeps on running, running
Keeps on running after me

Run, run, running
Run, run, running
Run, run, running after me
Run, run, running
Run, run, running
Run, run, running after me yeah

Oh, it's chasin' me down
Chasin' me down
Oh, everywhere I look, yeah

Surely Your goodness and mercy will follow me
Surely Your goodness and mercy will follow me
Every time I turn around
Surely Your goodness and mercy will follow me
Every time I turn around
Surely Your goodness and mercy will follow me
Every time I turn around
Surely Your goodness and mercy will follow me
Every time I turn around
Surely Your goodness and mercy will follow me
Every time I turn around
Surely Your goodness and mercy will follow me

Your love is better than life
'Cause one day here in Your house
Better than a thousand elsewhere

Your love keeps on running
Keeps on running
Keeps on running, running, running

Run, run, running
Run, run, running
Run, run, running after me
Run, run, running
Run, run, running
Run, run, running
Run, run, running after me
Run, run, running
Run, run, running after me
Run, run, running
Run, run, running
Run, run, running
Run, run, running after me
Run, run, running
Run, run, running
Run, run, running after me
Run, run, running
Run, run, running
Run, run, running after me
Run, run, running
Run, run, running
Run, run, running after me

Oh
Every time I turn around
Goodness and mercy and favor
Every time I turn around, yeah

'Cause it's just that good
I could be headed in the wrong direction
There's still goodness there
Waiting, running, chasin' me down
It's my testimony

Oh, You blow my mind
You keep blowin' my mind
Every time
Every time I turn around
You keep blowin' my mind
Every time
Every time I turn around
You keep blowin' my mind
Every time
Every time I turn around
You keep blowin' my mind
Every time

'Cause Your love is better than life
Is better than a thousand elsewhere, oh
Keeps on running
Keeps on running
Keeps on running
