

THIS MOMENT

Elevation Worship

I can't fast forward and I can't rewind
There's nowhere to run and there's nothing to hide
I can't go back to erase space and time
I give You this moment, my heart's open wide

'Cause here, right now
I will bring all I have to give
'Cause here, right now
You are my only motive

You're the one I want forever, You can have all of me
I won't forget this moment, You are my everything
More than I could ever ask for, more than my hopes and dreams
I won't forget this moment, You are my everything

If my heart's a desert, abandoned and dry
You word like rain drowning out all the lies
You whisper, I feel You like chills down my spine
Your voice like thunder that I can't deny

You're the one I want forever, You can have all of me
I won't forget this moment, You are my everything
More than I could ever ask for, more than my hopes and dreams
I won't forget this moment, You are my everything

You're the one that I'm after, only one that I need
You're the one that I'm after, only one that I need
You're the one that I'm after, You're my everything

You're the one I want forever, You can have all of me
I won't forget this moment, You are my everything
More than I could ever ask for, more than my hopes and dreams
I won't forget this moment, You are my everything
