

Sail into forever
Gates are opening
Precious in the tremble
Naked silently forcing movement

No, I know now why I'm flying
Come along untie all dying
More no more, no space between us
No, I know

Sorrow sees the beauty
Only fast fading
Fire in the forest
Where are we hiding?
Only memories...

I Will Drink It All

Stoned in time of yearning
Labor for the rest
Bless the water, hurry
Glide across my past
Bend my will, I'm burning

Open for a moment and last at last
I will take it just to give it away
Always full and there in a glass, my guest
I will drink it all and more if I may

Bathing in illusion
Ride the highest wave
I tell you longing for the glory
Brought into the grave
Smile at me, I'm burning
