

Three Voices

Eleven

Three sweet voices in the night
Oh maybe we should follow as in a dream holding hands
All the world is down below
And we feel like a cloud
And so we laugh aloud
I'll never let it go, you know me
Forever holding you now
My life won't belong to the darkness
You're an angel
I know you know the reason for
All of this death
A shell can never hold the love I feel
(For all of you)
