

And so you went away with half a say
Please tell me why?
You left me in the cold, with just a mold
Please tell me why? WHY?
You made me turn around and see the up
You didn't , why?
You left an empty space I can't replace. I'd never try
The things I want to hear are disappeared. Too late to cry
Angels keep falling and dirt keeps on rolling oh my
My, why did you fall? Why?
Too much too hold. Why? You broke
Trapped in the middle of this great lie
Why? Did you not know why?
This is all show. Why so soon?
You should have waited to see it bloom
And so you went away with half a say
Please tell me why?
You left us in the cold, with just a mold
Please tell me why? WHY?
I stare into the beast in endless feast
It will not die
But you made it your friend until the end
Please tell me why?
You could have let it be and let the sea
Take you on a ride
Angels keep falling and dirt keeps on rolling oh my
My, why did you fall? Why?
Too much too hold. Why? You broke
Trapped in the middle of this great lie
Why? Did you not know why?
This is all show. Why so soon?
You should have waited to see it bloom
Oh why?
