

Yes, Alright

Eleven

And when I turn around all the heavenly open eyes don't look twice
And when I hit the ground
There is no one that can keep me there 'cause I don't care
I never knew that I could lose you
I never thought that they'd abuse you

Say Love
Say Might Say Dark
Say Night I won't die without a fight
Say Dog
Say Sight
Say God
Say Light
Say Yes, Alright
The table's turned away and we find the pie is made of clay and we obey
A child is lost at sea full of faces preaching misery, but not to me
I never knew that I'd awakened
I never thought the tree was shaken
