

Sad nights into Saturdays
Winter left a mess that the summer rains wash away 6 months of coming unglued just Laugh until we cry till we run out of booze but

I feel the same way when I feel you
Cause you feel like home
Oh you've been my truth
There's not a mountain that I wouldn't move for another
For another summer night with you

Time flies if you let it free
Life is turning into work, rinse, repeat
Can we untangle what we turned into
Turn these wedding rings into new tattoos cause

I feel the same way when I feel you
Cause you feel like home
Oh you've been my truth
There's not a mountain that I wouldn't move for another
For another summer night with you

I feel the same when I feel you
Cause you feel like home
Oh you've been my truth
Every plan I've made has changed but you

I feel the same way when I feel you
Cause you feel like home
Oh you've been my truth
There's not a mountain that I wouldn't move for another
For another summer night with you
