

Side Hug

eleventyseven

Jugglin' the weight of the mandate
Bubble to the top like a phosphate
Trauma still bottled in my chest x-ray, yeah
Wobble like a VHS on the replay
Struggle with a puzzle when the piece breaks
Looking in the mirror like "Damn, that's a deep fake"
Try to cut ties with the heartbreak
But I've got this thread of Ariadne sewn in my bitrate

Used to kind of side hug all my hopes
Used to walk lines like high tightropes
Now I can't quit
Championships
Puttin' out hits on my heroes

Bat outta hell like Meatloaf
Can't cool down like a heat stroke
Droppin' this weight like Keto
Hope yaw'll never gotta break like we broke

Fast lane in the campaign
Now I got a lotta
Champaign in the membrane
Knocking' out fires like a Blastoise
I'm a bad boy
Bruce Willis on a asteroid
And when I splat like Pollock with the paint throw
I'll be swimming down Styx with a backstroke
Nailed to the heresy sleeping in my source code
Match to the kerosene soaking in my halo

Used to kind of side hug all my hopes
Used to walk lines like high tightropes
Now I can't quit
Championships
Puttin' out hits on my heroes

Bat outta hell like Meatloaf
Can't cool down like a heat stroke
Droppin' this weight like Keto
Hope yaw'll never gotta break like we broke
