White like purity, red like blood poured out to be free They think that they can use the name of God to kill the innoce nt people

But they have never really met the one true God

They used the inquisitions for their own interest and hid behin d the reason

That they were doing it for God

The True God gave you freedom by letting you choose which road to take

With only religion there is no freedom

The truth is found in a true relationship with God