

Admit It

ELHAE

Yeah

A lot of niggas try and tell me that I never get it. (Never get it, get it)
The same niggas sittin' on the sideline. (Uh)
Hittin' up my girl tryna see if they can hit it
Look at me and look at you, better luck next time. (Woah)
I'm just that nigga
Might write a song for your girl, then turn around hang with some killas
I know you feel it but don't ever get it too twisted, my crew is way deep like a village. (Uhn)
I'm like a Saiyan, you like a Krillin
Simply just average and not too appealing
I'm tryna' get this bread stacked to the ceiling
I'm simply the illest I'm tellin' these niggas. (Yea yea)
I been on the road almost took a toll, feelin' like these niggas still sleep.
(Still sleep)
You on my mind every day of the week, you actin' like I ain't playing for keeps.
(Uh)

But I know you want it, (yea)
You need it
You believe it
You won't admit it. (you won't admit it)
I know you want it, (I know that you want it)
You need it, (I know that you need it)
You believe it (I know that you believe it)
But you won't admit it. (But you won't admit it)

Been all around the world see some different girls still a nigga thinkin' bout who? (You you you you)
Every time a nigga hit you up
Somehow we end up fightin' like Ken and Ryu
It's a shame huh? (Perfect)
I'm the one to blame huh? (Huh)
Now you don't know my name huh? (Huh)
I'm the reason you been feelin' all this pain huh? (Huh)
Cause I'm never home and when I am it's late huh? (Right)
I'm just tryna get it
You know a nigga is steady on his grizzly. (Right)
Work until he never have to work when he is 50. (Uh)
Tryna be in conversation with J. Cole and Drizzy. (Uh)
So I'm sorry if I always seem like I be busy
You know how I feel bout you. (You you you)
Girl I did a lot for you, (I did a lot for you)
It's something's that I can't undo

But girl I know you want it
You need it
You believe it
But you won't admit it (you won't admit it)
I know you want it (I know that you want it)
You need it (I know that you need it)
You believe it (I know that you believe it)
But you won't admit it (but you won't admit it)

I know you want it
I want you
I want you

I want you
I want you
I want you
I want you
I want you
I want you
