ELHAE

Somethin' I wanna tell you
You...

Anywhere you are
I'ma be there right beside you
Anywhere you are
'Cause girl, I know you're down for me
You ride or die (Yeah)

Just know you'll always be enough
I didn't know the way I need you (Yeah, yeah)
Special for love, it's different people (Yeah, yeah)
If you ever doubt I'm sure, I'm yours (Yeah, yours)

Truthfully, I don't know how you're mine
Love the way you make me feel inside
I wanted to believe in somethin' more
Then there's you, you, woah

You're my baby, you're my favourite
You're my baby, you're my, you're my favourite
You're my baby, you're my favourite
You're my baby, you're my, you're my favourite

Girl, you got my heart
You told me I don't need to feel
The weight of the world on my shoulders
This girl got my head in the clouds
Girl, you're just so wow

You know you'll always be enough
Who would've know you'd be the one? (Who whould've know)
I try but I can't love you enough (Love you enough)
And if you ever doubt I'm sure, I'm yours, I'm yours (Yeah)

Truthfully, I don't know how you're mine (Truthfully)
Love the way you make me feel inside (Inside)
I wanted to believe in somethin' more
Then there's you, you, woah

You're my baby, you're my favourite (Oh, yeah)
You're my baby, you're my, you're my favourite (Woo)
You're my baby, you're my favourite
You're my baby, you're my, you're my favourite
