

For All You Know

ELHAE

Remember when we told each other we would stay the same?
Sitting on the roof looking at the planes
I was just a young boy, something like a beast you can't tame
When it all seemed to slip down the drain
We all got some demons that we battle with Overshadowing a good heart, but its kinda hard to balance it
Sometime we look in the mirror and see a villain
With some suicidal feelings, I'm steady, ready and willing, but I got some more to do, I got some more to give Something I'm supposed to do
I know I'm in for something greater, it's my nature
I know I'm walking a path of a legend, I'm tryna make it

So tell me where I go, tell me where I go
Tell me where I go, go, tell me where I go
Tell me where I go, tell me where I go
Just tell me where I go, go, go

When it's all you know and you lose control
And you wanna set a place and your love just fades away
(I know)

When it's all you know and you lose control
And it's hard to make a way, can we really stay the same?
(Who knows?)

I'm traveling down an abandoned highway
Just a stranger to you and it's like you never knew my name
It's crazy how that happens, right?
Calling your friends, tryna see where you were at the night
I told myself that I would never ever play your games
But when it comes to broken hearts, we all become a slave
I'm feeling like the person who was pushed away
When really I'm the one that pushed you to a heartless grave
I understand, I understand
But understand my effort to become a better man
No, every story can't be Cinderella, Peter Pans
Like how we supposed to map it out if you ain't see the plan?
No, you ain't see the plan
Now I'm stuck in a world surrounded by nothing
But people I don't remember, I'm tryna refrain from numbing
Tryna recover because you always gave me hope
And now you're gone, I don't know where else to go

So tell me where I go, tell me where I go
Tell me where I go, go, tell me where I go
Tell me where I go, tell me where I go
Just tell me where I go, go, go

When it's all you know and you lose control
And you wanna set a place and your love just fades away
(I know)

When it's all you know and you lose control
And you wanna set a place and your love just fades away
(I know)

When it's all you know and you lose control
And it's hard to make a way, can we really stay the same?
(Who knows?)
