

It's All There (Secrets)

ELHAE

I just want y'all to see how good I look
Yeah I'm going to Target to buy me a husband
And yeah it's all there
It's there, mmh-hm
We ain't never seen somebody this big
Burn it

I see that you shy
But it's you and I
Want you to be comfortable baby
And you
You just don't know
How much I want you
Oh you you you

Remember the last time we had some wine
Slowly started to unwind
And you
Show me you can take, yeah
I need it, I want it
Would you mind if I pushed up on it
Oh girl
Get ready

'Cause baby I'm on my way home
Put down your phone
When we're alone
Show me your secrets
I want what you want
Just make it know
I set the tone
Show me your secrets

Baby I know you ain't shy
And it's on my mind
I know I'm your favorite sport
And baby why would I deny
If you want to I'll try
That's what you been waiting for

Remember the last time we talked for hours
Told you 'bout my superpower
And you
You said give me everything
Girl I'll do it again and again and again
To take in that tone

'Cause baby I'm on my way home
Put down your phone
When we're alone
Show me your secrets
I want what you want
Just make it know
I set the tone
Show me your secrets

It's all there

It's all there
It's all there
It's all there
No one else compares
No one else compares
They won't eve dare
It's all there
It's all there
It's all there
It's all there
No one else compares
They won't eve dare
