Let Go

ELHAE

Lay down
Baby I got something that I want to say and it won't just wait now (oh)
You got everything I need
But how you feel babe, do you feel the same? (oh)
Don't want to play no games (no)
I want the real

And you been waiting for some time
I've been waiting all my life
Going back and forth with myself (no)
Thinking I should let go (oh)
Maybe I should let go (oh)
Thinking I should let go
Maybe I should let go but I don't wanna let go (no)

I Wrote you a letter
Praying that things will get better
Cause I got some time to waste
I just pray that this is the day that we wish for forever
Name the time and a place
When you're ready I'll show you a world
Where everything's different and my only mission is to make you my girl
Remember them days, my hand on the wheel, the wind in your face
We went through a phase but girl you know no one is taking your place
We can vibe out, we can lay down, turn the lights out
Whatever that you want to do

I know that you been waiting for some time
I've been waiting all my life
Going back and forth with myself
Thinking I should let go
Maybe I should let go
Thinking I should let go
Thinking I should let go
Thinking I should let go
Maybe I should let go, but I don't want to let go
