ELHAE

Yeah, I write these letters inside of this notebook
Quick on my feet while my angers approaching
I want your heart and I want your devotion
Sadly, I can't make you feel my emotions
I know the futures scary, but once you hold my hand
That only becomes temporary
I need a military, fight for this love that we made
I'm tryna find the words to say to make you stay
Yeah, I cried, I'm not ashamed to say
Screaming at God, like he's the one that made you go away
Every night I pray that you would find a place
Filled with happiness and where your skies just ain't so grey
What hurts the most is I couldn't provide that world for you
And even though you were mine, I wasn't the world to you
Now I got these blues, what am I to do?
I close my eyes and look to God, I put my trust in you
I put my trust in you

Without a sound ever heard
Without a lesson I've learned
You're foolish and deluded
(We can't control what happens)
Too many lies have you burned
(We can't control how we feel)

Oh, crash and burn, crash and burn
I guess you gotta learn, gotta learn
Lock yourself in a room, bury your head in a pillow
Drink some liquor, go to the store for some cigarillos
I watch myself become someone that I don't even know
I crack my bible, then close it, my faith is burning slow
I don't got no control, tryna just go with the flow
But its too hard when all I wanna do is hold you close
Love is dangerous, who really wants to feel like this?
Pucker up, cause it's like death in the form of a kiss
What a crazy risk, we give our heart away
Hoping that they don't wake up one day and not feel the same
I'm okay being single, I just hate how it ended
If you weren't happy in this, why wasn't that ever mentioned?
I love you so much it hurts to even mention your name
I get that pain in my stomach and it won't go away

Without a sound ever heard
Without a lesson I've learned
You're foolish and deluded
Too many lies have you burned

Without a sound ever heard
(See, I'm not really understanding what's going on)
Without a lesson I've learned
(You know better than I do)
You're foolish and deluded
(When you get ready, let me know what's up)
Too many lies have you burned
(I have no idea, no idea)
