

Only One

ELHAE

It's been awhile since I text your phone
But you still hit me up
We've been searching for something lesser known
Real love
But I'll tell you I'm here for a good time not a long time yeah
It's the first time you've been fienin' in a long time yeah
And you ain't the only one
You ain't the only one
You ain't the only one
You ain't the only one

Blocked your number missed your call
I just think we're getting too involved
Usually I shrug it off
But this time it's like you've got a hold on me
Call your phone when I need company
If you never fucked up then I'd prolly never leave
Started out as best friends now it's like we're enemies
I swear all this bull shit ain't good for my sanity
That's why...

It's been awhile since I text your phone
But you still hit me up
We've been searching for something lesser known
Real love
But I'll tell you I'm here for a good time not a long time yeah
It's the first time you've been fienin' in a long time yeah
And you ain't the only one
You ain't the only one
You ain't the only one
You ain't the only one

I guess I'm trippin' not tryna listen
I'm taking risk with this
Girl this shit different
Know you ain't used to disrespect from me
But when you act like that
What you expect from me, huh?
Blocked your number decline your call
Read your text text my ex
Find the next one who gon' do what you supposed to do
And I hate to make it seem like your love is disposable

It's been awhile since I text your phone
But you still hit me up
We've been searching for something lesser known
Real love
But I'll tell you I'm here for a good time not a long time yeah
It's the first time you've been fienin' in a long time yeah
You ain't the only one
