

Re' Lxuisse (Interlude)

ELHAE

Let's build this kingdom together
Create the impossible with what we found
Let's start from rock bottom, where our paths first crossed
So no one can shake our foundation or take what's already lost
Let's take our hearts, build up these walls
And cover them in serenity
Let's take our hurt, shield us from the rain
I know they think we're insane
We can let the world in if we want to
We don't want to
You just want me, and I just want you
Going to a place just made for two
Only feel this way when I'm with you
Right here in our palace of emotion
Where your fire comes alive
I'll give you my eternal devotion
Till the time is no more
Right here in our palace
In our palace of emotion where your fire comes alive
Right here in our palace
I'll give you my eternal devotion till the time is no more
Right here in our palace
In our palace of emotion where your fire comes alive
Right here, right here
I'll give you my eternal devotion till the time is no more
